

POWERPOINT CONTENT RUBRIC

This tool will help you construct your slide show. Your slide show should be a minimum of least six slides. It should have a title slide, four fact slides, and a bibliography slide at the end.

SLIDE	CONTENT
Title Page Slide	Include your name, due date, teacher's name, school, and a picture of your composer.
Composer Biography Slides	Have at least two slides of facts about your composers. Each slide must contain at least three facts. The information about your composer should be relevant to your topic
Music History Slides	There must be at least two slides of facts about the times in which your composer lived. Each slide should contain at least three facts.
Sounds and Graphics	Each slide must contain graphics and/or sound files appropriate to the information given. Tip: In order to have music play on your ppt, you must make a folder on your desktop and put your ppt file into it along with your mp3 file and any other graphics you use.
Font	Main title and bullet fonts must be large enough to be easily read. Font style must be the same throughout the slide show. Tip: fonts must also be transferred to you ppt folder in order for them be read on other computers.
Special Effects	Your slide show should have a theme, slide transitions, special effects/animations/and or music. However, they should not take away from the overall story.
Bibliography Page	References must be alphabetized and include hyperlinks to your sources on the Internet. Citations must contain author's name, title of web page, Internet address, and date web page was accessed. You must cite at least three separate Internet sources. Check MLA links on the recourses page for proper citation criterion.
Overall Design	The slides must flow smoothly form one slide to the next. The font is the same throughout. The sounds and/or graphics match the facts. Slide show should be entertaining and informative without being too cluttered or having inappropriate elements that distract from the story. It should be pleasing to the eye and ear and easily read.
